

LeadingAge Wisconsin

Senior Housing

As a senior housing professional, are you looking for:

- The opportunity to network and share with your peers from around the state
- Access to operational, clinical, financial, and legal experts to help you with your professional role
- Guidance on the trends that are impacting your day-to-day responsibilities
- Assistance with pursuing the vision you have for the future of your senior housing facility
- A systematic way to collect, share, and benchmark data on current issues and concerns
- Access to a member-exclusive website designed to support the work of persons responsible for the management/oversight of senior housing (independent living) operations -- settings such as apartment buildings, single family homes, cottages or duplexes, HUD and low-income properties, or independent living apartment buildings with floating RCAC units.
- Access to a resource clearinghouse designed to help you and your peers collect and share information and resources on topics such as:
 - o Activities
 - o Economic Trends
 - o Admissions/Evictions
 - o Employees
 - o Food Services
 - o Housekeeping
 - o Maintenance
 - o Marketing
 - o Mission Statements
 - o Pets
 - o Resident Health
 - o Resident Safety
 - o Resident Wellbeing
 - o Transfers
 - o Transportation
 - o Trends & Future Initiatives
 - o Vendors/Guests/Visitors

LeadingAge™
Wisconsin
Better Services for Better Aging

A member association dedicated to sustainability and success in long-term care, assisted living, and senior housing.

LeadingAge Wisconsin demonstrates a caring commitment to the highest quality of life and greatest independence for each individual served.

We have what are you looking for!

Senior Housing Network

The LeadingAge Wisconsin Senior Housing Network supports senior housing professionals with networking meetings plus access to policies, procedures, contracts, guidelines, practical tips, sample letters, best practices, and a host of other useful information and materials covering topic areas such as:

- Admissions, Background Checks & Evictions
- Housekeeping, Maintenance, Dining Services, Grounds, Decor
- HUD & Low Income Housing
- Marketing & Sales
- Marketing Tools
- Mission Statements
- Policies & Procedures
- Resident Health, Safety & Wellbeing
- Resident Services (Activities, Volunteers & Councils)
- Senior Housing with RCACs
- Transfers within Senior Housing and to Other Levels of Care
- Transportation
- Trends & Future Initiatives
- Visitors, Guests & Vendors

Our Commitment to Quality

The LeadingAge Wisconsin commitment to quality throughout our member organizations is integrated into the very fabric of this association. We fully believe our members represent the best of the best in senior living providers, and we have mastered the art of members helping members. Our members realize the success of this effort and the quality of our association as a whole is only as great as the weakest link in our chain; therefore, we are committed to the effort of growing all members so that we have no weak link and our level of quality will be our hallmark of success.

LeadingAge Wisconsin encourages its members to achieve high professional standards and provide innovative approaches to the delivery of quality services, which are both effective and efficient, and which result in the enhancement and enrichment of the lives of those served.

